September 2024

Salut les profs !

Welcome back to a new school year, and a brand-new series of Ça va ? magazine! This issue is full of fascinating cultural content guaranteed to get your students excited about their French lessons! On pages 4-5, we visit a classroom that's out of this world—literally! At the Mars Desert Research Station, students wear space suits instead of uniforms, and ride rovers instead of school buses! Get the most out of the article with our audio interview with Erin Pougheon, a student at the Mars Research Station! Plus, your students should have plenty to say about our debate on pages 6-7: should everyone have to study a language? We're biased, but we hope their answer is oui!

There's even more to explore online, including the first installment of our new video series, *Ça va ? sans filtre! Head to the website to watch, and to find all your extra resources including audio and listen along tracks, worksheets, lesson plans, and—new for 2024—Google Quizzes. With ready-made questions and automatic grading, they're sure to make teaching life easier.

Happy learning!
